Arrest: Shamich M. Davis

The Auburn Police Department reports the arrest of Shamich M. Davis who has been a fugitive from justice since 2011. Davis was sentenced to 12 years with 3 years post release supervision on drug sale charges which were prosecuted through the Cayuga County District Attorney Office. Davis was captured by the United States Marshal Service in Jacksonville Florida on March 11, 2016 and placed in the custody of the Jacksonville (Duval County) Sheriff's Office pending extradition. After waiving extradition Davis was transported back to Auburn on March 22, 2016 where he was processed on a bench warrant issued out of Cayuga County Court. Davis is being held at the Cayuga County Jail and will appear in Cayuga County Court on March 24, 2016.
