Media Release

On August 30, 2016 at approximately 9:05 a.m. patrol officers with the Auburn Police Department were dispatched to an address on Miller St on a report of a domestic dispute and the theft of the victim’s vehicle. Upon arrival patrol officers discovered that the suspect had forced entry into the victims residence and intentionally damaged several items in the residence. The suspect then grabbed the victim’s keys from her hand and drove off in her vehicle. The suspect was located and interviewed at APD by members of the Detective Bureau. The suspect was then arrested and he led APD members to the location of the vehicle. The vehicle was located in a wooded area in Montezuma near the Seneca River. The defendant Brad H. Talbot was charged with several misdemeanors and felonies. He was arraigned in Auburn City Court and remanded to the Cayuga County Jail. The victim was not injured in the incident and there was no damage to the vehicle.
