Re: Grand Larceny Motor Vehicle

On today's date at 0250hrs the Auburn Police Department arrested Jeremy Ryan on a warrant issued by Auburn City Court. The arrest was based on an investigation conducted by the Auburn Police Department Detective Bureau, involving a stolen motor vehicle complaint from December 2014.

The investigation began on December 04, 2014 when a local resident reported his vehicle stolen from the Kwik Fill at 302 Genesee St. Later that same day a County resident determined that his NYS registration plates had been stolen off from his vehicle, and discovered one of the NYS license plates from the stolen vehicle attached to his vehicle.

The subsequent investigation led Detectives to the Columbus, Ohio area. On December 25, 2014 the vehicle was discovered abandoned in a shopping plaza. The vehicle was returned to the owner in Auburn. Based on evidence collected throughout the investigation a warrant was requested for the arrest of Jeremy Ryan.

On February 20, 2015 Jeremy Ryan was arrested in Columbus, Ohio and booked into the Franklin County Jail, as a Fugitive from Justice. Jeremy Ryan was arraigned on February 27, in Ohio and waived extradition. He was transported back to Auburn, NY over the weekend.

Jeremy Ryan is currently being held at the Auburn Police Department on no bail. His initial court appearance is today at 1000hrs in Auburn City Court. Jeremy Ryan is currently charged with Grand Larceny in the Fourth Degree, Tampering with physical evidence, and Petit Larceny. The incident is believed to be isolated, and there are currently no other suspects being sought.
