Media Release

It is with great honor that I announce the promotion of Lt. Roger J. Anthony to the position of Deputy Chief of Police with the Auburn Police Department effective today, July 1st, 2016.

Deputy Chief Anthony began his career with the Auburn Police Department in January of 1997 as a patrol officer in which he served a majority of this assignment on the afternoon shift. In 2000 he was assigned to the Finger Lakes Drug Task Force as a narcotics investigator. In 2008 Deputy Chief Anthony was promoted to Sergeant and then Lieutenant in 2011 while he supervised and then commanded the Finger Lakes Drug Task Force and was responsible for the operations of the task force. Since 2012 he has been assigned to the patrol division as a commanding lieutenant of the afternoon platoon.

Deputy Chief Anthony will be charged with the day to day functions of the police department as well coordinating the functions amongst the other police divisions and providing high level administrative support to the Office of the Chief of Police.

Deputy Chief Anthony will ceremonially be sworn in during the City Council meeting on Thursday, July 7th, 2016 beginning at 5:00pm.
