Christopher Malone, the Grants and Public Programs Associate from CNY Arts joined us to share information about the events calendar on cnyarts.org, which links to Auburn Arts. CNY Arts represents six counties, and though Cayuga County is not officially included, members such as Schweinfurth Art Center, Seward House Museum, and Auburn Public Theater have been invited to share events on this platform. The online calendar, which sees 10,000-20,000 hits roughly per month, will be undergoing a refurbishment for easier use by visitors. Also, the use of tags can assist visitors in finding events. Currently, there are approximately 4,000 events listed on the calendar. D. Lamb suggested an AdHOC committee be created to explore this further as a group.

New ads using the new rack card images have been created for spring and summer advertising in the Skaneateles Directory and July/August edition of Life in the Finger Lakes magazine.

Passport to History

D. Lamb reported the program has kicked off and sites are already seeing fourth grade visitors and their families. K. Szewczyk stated National Park week will occur in April, enabling 4th graders to access national parks for free with their families. This will collaborate well with the passport program.

G. Sears reported on behalf of S. Muldoon. She thanked K. Szewczyk from the Harriet Tubman National Historical Park (HTNHP) and Zach Finn from the Seward House Museum (SHM) for conducting the presentations in fourth grade classrooms. All of the feedback from teachers has been very positive. Any questions can be directed to S. Muldoon directly or through G. Sears. S. Muldoon will contact the sites within the first two weeks of May to collect the family memberships and site mementos for the Grand Prize.
