The program added three Special Patrol Officers which provided more coverage to schools and also provided security to city department buildings, such as City Hall, the Equal Rights Heritage Center and the city parking garage.

The Patrol Division conducted several traffic stops throughout the year in hopes of keeping drivers, passengers, pedestrians and the general public safe, by reducing the number of collisions as well as providing education to motorists. Throughout the year, we held multiple checkpoints and increased patrols during holidays as part of several grants we received, including Buckle Up New York ($4,350 received) and several Aggressive Driving details ($18,850 received). These grants are awarded as part of the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee. A total of 547 Uniformed Traffic Tickers were issued during these details.

The Training and Planning Division coordinated 11,642 hours of training in various subjects throughout the year, which included field training for recruits who graduated from the Syracuse Police Academy and Mohawk Valley Police Academy. All officers in our department received training which included Firearms, Use of Force, Body-Worn Cameras, Active Shooter, Duty to Intercede, Implicit Bias, and state-mandated training.
