

Sub Group 3

Alternatives to Police Response and Procedural Justice

Via Zoom – December 8, 2020 at 3pm

Agenda

- Facilitators: Jeff Dygert – City of Auburn Manager
Steve Lynch – Director, Cayuga County Planning Department
- Attendees: Rhoda Overstreet – Wilson, Heather Petrus, John Socci, Lloyd Hoskins, Kyle Platt, Fred Cornelius, Jimmy Giannettino, Nicole Stewart, Ricardo and Kathy Aguilar, Greg Gilfus, Jeff Emerson, Denise Spingler

- Roll call and technology check

- Review key points from first meeting
 - Reached out to the District Attorney for more information regarding questions about diversion programs and received no reply.
 - Reached out to Denise Spingler, 911 Director, who responded to some question related to how calls are prioritized and how various agencies are assigned. Denise is joining us today to directly address other questions/concerns.

- Discussion of assigned topics:
 - Alternatives to Police Response
 - Proper response to non-criminal calls – gather some thoughts on how the current system might be improved
 - Diversionary programs and courts- Alternatives to arrest/incarceration - gather some thoughts on how the current system might be improved
 - Community court
 - Community partners – have we included everyone?
 - Expectations from the community – what kind of police force/response do you want or expect? – Discuss current survey results and future initiatives to gather community feedback
 - Procedural Justice
 - Implicit Bias – discuss alternatives to improve training
 - De-escalation
 - Transparency (media/public communication)

- Complaint process
 - Community input – having a voice to ensure trust, fairness, and accountability
- Discuss ideas to get this information back to the community.
 - Recap – establish topics for future development/discussion
 - Next meeting:
 - Thank you