Date of Incident Occurrence: 02/02/2022 1020 hrs

Nature of Event: Missing Juvenile

Location of Event Occurrence: City of Auburn.

Media Release Written By: Det. James Frost / 0558

The Auburn Police Department is requesting the help of the public to locate Taylor Disanto, a 16 year old female resident of the City of Auburn who has been reported as missing. Taylor is believed to have left voluntarily and is possibly staying with persons in the Auburn or Cortland area. The Auburn Police Department would like to confirm the whereabouts of Taylor and to check her welfare.

Taylor is 5'3" tall, weighs approximately 130 lbs, has blue eyes, brown hair, a nose piercing, and a cross tattooed on her middle finger (unknown which hand). Taylor was last seen wearing black sweat pants and a black sweat shirt.

Information regarding Taylor's whereabouts can be made confidentially to the Auburn Police Department at the phone number of 315-253-3231, or can be made to Det. James Frost at 315-255-4702 or his email at jfrost@auburnny.gov.

The Auburn Police Department would like to relay that intentionally concealing a juvenile who is a known missing person can be a violation of the law.
