On November 29, 2023 at approximately 2:09 am the Auburn Police Department responded to the area of Harley’s Pub at 149 State St for the report of a person shot. Upon arrival one male was found with a gunshot wound and another with a stab wound. It was relayed that the other involved parties had left the area in a vehicle.

The vehicle with the other involved parties was located shortly thereafter and are currently being detained for questioning.

Both the shooting and the stabbing victims were transported to University Upstate Hospital for treatment. Both are expected to recover.

At this time there is no threat to the public as all involved have been accounted for. No further information will be released at this time due to this being an active investigation.

The Auburn Police Department is asking that if anyone has any additional information in regards to this incident, to please contact Det. Weeks at (315)255-4706 or email mweeks@auburnny.gov; or Det.
