

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

1008.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

State

This policy provides guidelines for the reporting, investigation and disposition of complaints regarding the conduct of members of the Auburn Police Department. This policy shall not apply to any questioning, counseling, instruction, informal verbal admonishment or other routine or unplanned contact of a member in the normal course of duty, by a supervisor or any other member, nor shall this policy apply to a criminal investigation.

1008.1.1 DEFINITIONS

Agency Content

Discipline - Discipline in the workplace is the means by which an organization ensures adherence to established policy and procedural guidelines, directives and goals. The purpose of discipline is to correct behavior. It is not intended to embarrass an employee.

Positive Discipline - All efforts apart from punishment made by a supervisor to correct behavior of an employee. Positive discipline is meant to be corrective and/or educational, including both informal and formal training. The purpose of positive discipline is to encourage an employee's compliance with the established policies and procedures of the department.

Negative Discipline - Is the issuance of punishment or sanctions for inappropriate conduct or unsatisfactory performance. Negative discipline may involve written reprimands, loss of pay or leave, suspension, demotion or dismissal.

Formal Discipline - Disciplinary action through the process mandated by the Section 75 in accordance with the New York State Civil Service Law and the Collective Negotiations Agreement with the Police Union local 195/Council 82.

1008.2 POLICY

Best Practice MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 14.4, 25.1

The Auburn Police Department takes seriously all complaints regarding the service provided by the Department and the conduct of its members.

The Department will accept and address all complaints of misconduct in accordance with this policy and applicable federal, state and local law and municipal and county rules and the requirements of any collective bargaining agreements.

It is also the policy of this department to ensure that the community can report misconduct without concern for reprisal or retaliation.

1008.3 PERSONNEL COMPLAINTS

Best Practice

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

Personnel complaints include any allegation of misconduct or improper job performance that, if true, would constitute a violation of department policy or federal, state or local law, policy or rule. Personnel complaints may be generated internally or by the public.

Inquiries about conduct or performance that, if true, would not violate department policy or federal, state or local law, policy or rule may be handled informally by a supervisor and shall not be considered a personnel complaint. Such inquiries generally include clarification regarding policy, procedures or the response to specific incidents by the Department.

1008.3.1 COMPLAINT CLASSIFICATIONS

Best Practice MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 25.1 (A), 25.1 (C)

Personnel complaints shall be classified in one of the following categories:

Informal - A matter in which the Shift Commander is satisfied that appropriate action has been taken by a supervisor of rank greater than or equal to the accused member.

Formal - A matter in which a supervisor determines that further action is warranted. Such complaints may be investigated by a supervisor of rank greater than the accused member or referred to the Administration, depending on the seriousness and complexity of the investigation.

Incomplete - A matter in which the complaining party either refuses to cooperate or becomes unavailable after diligent follow-up investigation. At the discretion of the assigned supervisor or the Administration, such matters may be further investigated depending on the seriousness of the complaint and the availability of sufficient information.

1008.3.2 SOURCES OF COMPLAINTS

Best Practice MODIFIED

The following applies to the source of complaints:

- (a) Individuals from the public may make complaints in any form, including in writing, by email, in person or by telephone.
- (b) Any department member becoming aware of alleged misconduct shall immediately notify a supervisor.
- (c) Supervisors shall initiate a complaint based upon observed misconduct or receipt from any source alleging misconduct that, if true, could result in disciplinary action.
- (d) Anonymous complaints should be accepted and investigated to the extent that sufficient information is provided and able to be verified
- (e) Tort claims and lawsuits may generate a personnel complaint.

1008.4 AVAILABILITY AND ACCEPTANCE OF COMPLAINTS

Best Practice MODIFIED

1008.4.1 ACCEPTANCE

Best Practice MODIFIED

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

All complaints will be courteously acknowledged by any department member and promptly referred to the appropriate supervisor. Although written complaints are preferred, a complaint may also be filed orally, either in person or by telephone. Such complaints will be directed to a supervisor. If a supervisor is not immediately available to take an oral complaint, the receiving member shall obtain contact information sufficient for the supervisor to contact the complainant. The supervisor, upon contact with the complainant, shall complete and submit a citizen complaint form via the chain of command to the Office of Chief of Police.

Although not required, complainants should be encouraged to file complaints in person so that proper identification, signatures, photographs or physical evidence may be obtained as necessary.

1008.4.2 PROCEDURE TO FILE A COMPLAINT

Agency Content

A personnel complaint may be presented to the department in person, by telephone, e-mail, fax or by letter. No department employee shall attempt to discourage, interfere or delay an individual from making a complaint. Every effort shall be made to facilitate the making of a complaint by ensuring the process is convenient, courteous and prompt. No department employee shall be subjected to any criticism, retaliation or reprisal for accepting or initiating a complaint.

1008.5 DOCUMENTATION

Best Practice MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 25.1 (B)

Supervisors shall ensure that all formal complaints are documented on a complaint form. The supervisor shall ensure that the nature of the complaint is defined as clearly as possible.

1008.6 ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATIONS

Best Practice

Allegations of misconduct will be administratively investigated as follows.

1008.6.1 SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

Best Practice MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 25.1 (A), 25.1 (C)

In general, the primary responsibility for the investigation of a personnel complaint shall rest with the member's immediate supervisor, unless the supervisor is the complainant, or the supervisor is the ultimate decision-maker regarding disciplinary action or has any personal involvement regarding the alleged misconduct. The Chief of Police or the authorized designee may direct that another supervisor investigate any complaint.

A supervisor who becomes aware of alleged misconduct shall take reasonable steps to prevent aggravation of the situation.

The responsibilities of supervisors include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Ensuring that upon receiving or initiating any formal complaint, a complaint form is completed.

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

1. The original complaint form will be directed to the Shift Commander of the accused member, via the chain of command, who will take appropriate action and/or determine who will have responsibility for the investigation.
 2. In circumstances where the integrity of the investigation could be jeopardized by reducing the complaint to writing or where the confidentiality of a complainant is at issue, a supervisor shall orally report the matter to the member's Commander or the Chief of Police, who will initiate appropriate action.
- (b) Responding to all complaints in a courteous and professional manner.
- (c) Resolving those personnel complaints that can be resolved immediately.
1. Follow-up contact with the complainant should be made within 48 hours of the Department receiving the complaint.
 2. If the matter is resolved and no further action is required, the supervisor will note the resolution on a complaint form and forward the form to the Shift Commander.
- (d) Ensuring that upon receipt of a complaint involving allegations of a potentially serious nature, the Shift Commander and Chiefs of Police are notified via the chain of command as soon as practicable.
- (e) Promptly contacting the Shift Commander for direction regarding the supervisor's role in addressing a complaint that relates to sexual, racial, ethnic or other forms of prohibited harassment or discrimination.
- (f) Forwarding unresolved personnel complaints to the Shift Commander, who will determine whether to contact the complainant or assign the complaint for investigation.
- (g) Investigating a complaint as follows:
1. Making reasonable efforts to obtain names, addresses and telephone numbers of witnesses.
 2. When appropriate, ensuring immediate medical attention is provided and photographs of alleged injuries and accessible uninjured areas are taken.
- (h) Ensuring that the procedural rights of the accused member are followed.
- (i) Ensuring interviews of the complainant are generally conducted during reasonable hours.

Punitive Discipline

1008.6.2 ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES UNDER CIVIL SERVICE LAW

State MODIFIED

Whether conducted by a supervisor or a member of the Administration, the following applies to employees covered by Civil Service Law (Civil Service Law § 75):

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

- (a) Interviews of an accused employee shall be conducted during reasonable hours and preferably when the employee is on-duty. If the employee is off-duty, he/she shall be compensated.
- (b) Unless waived by the employee, interviews of an accused employee shall be at the Auburn Police Department or other reasonable and appropriate place.
- (c) No more than two interviewers should ask questions of an accused employee.
- (d) Prior to any interview, an employee should be informed of the nature of the investigation.
- (e) All interviews should be for a reasonable period and the employee's personal needs should be accommodated.
- (f) No employee should be subjected to offensive or threatening language, nor shall any promises, rewards or other inducements be used to obtain answers.
- (g) Any employee refusing to answer questions directly related to the investigation may be ordered to answer questions administratively and may be subject to discipline for failing to do so.
 - 1. An employee should be given an order to answer questions in an administrative investigation that might incriminate the employee in a criminal matter only after the employee has been given a Garrity advisement. Administrative investigators should consider the impact that compelling a statement from the employee may have on any related criminal investigation and should take reasonable steps to avoid creating any foreseeable conflicts between the two related investigations. This may include conferring with the person in charge of the criminal investigation (e.g., discussion of processes, timing, implications).
 - 2. No information or evidence administratively coerced from an employee may be provided to anyone involved in conducting the criminal investigation or to any prosecutor.
- (h) The interviewer should record all interviews of employees and witnesses. The employee may also record the interview.
- (i) All employees subjected to interviews that could result in discipline have the right to have a certified or recognized union representative present during the interview. However, in order to maintain the integrity of each individual's statement, involved employees shall not consult or meet with a representative or attorney collectively or in groups prior to being interviewed.
 - (a) The employee shall be informed in advance and in writing of the right to representation.
 - (b) If the employee is unable to find representation within a reasonable time, the interview will proceed.
- (j) When an employee is ordered by a supervisor to complete a written report during an administrative investigation the employee shall complete and submit such report without unnecessary delay

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

- (k) All employees shall provide complete and truthful responses to questions posed during interviews.
- (l) No employee may be compelled to submit to a psychological stress evaluator examination, nor shall any refusal to submit to such examination be mentioned in any investigation (Labor Law § 735).

1008.6.3 NOTICE OF CHARGES

State MODIFIED

Any charges brought against an employee shall be in writing and within the time frame prescribed by law and the collective bargaining agreement (Civil Service Law § 75).

1008.6.4 ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATION FORMAT

Best Practice

Formal investigations of personnel complaints shall be thorough, complete and essentially follow this format:

Introduction - Include the identity of the members, the identity of the assigned investigators, the initial date and source of the complaint.

Synopsis - Provide a brief summary of the facts giving rise to the investigation.

Summary - List the allegations separately, including applicable policy sections, with a brief summary of the evidence relevant to each allegation. A separate recommended finding should be provided for each allegation.

Evidence - Each allegation should be set forth with the details of the evidence applicable to each allegation provided, including comprehensive summaries of member and witness statements. Other evidence related to each allegation should also be detailed in this section.

Conclusion - A recommendation regarding further action or disposition should be provided.

Exhibits - A separate list of exhibits (e.g., recordings, photos, documents) should be attached to the report.

1008.6.5 DISPOSITIONS

Best Practice

Each personnel complaint shall be classified with one of the following dispositions:

Unfounded - When the investigation discloses that the alleged acts did not occur or did not involve department members. Complaints that are determined to be frivolous will fall within the classification of unfounded.

Exonerated - When the investigation discloses that the alleged act occurred but that the act was justified, lawful and/or proper.

Not sustained - When the investigation discloses that there is insufficient evidence to sustain the complaint or fully exonerate the member.

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

Sustained - When the investigation discloses sufficient evidence to establish that the act occurred and that it constituted misconduct.

If an investigation discloses misconduct or improper job performance that was not alleged in the original complaint, the investigator shall take appropriate action with regard to any additional allegations.

1008.6.6 COMPLETION OF INVESTIGATIONS

Best Practice

Every investigator or supervisor assigned to investigate a personnel complaint or other alleged misconduct shall proceed with due diligence in an effort to complete the investigation within one year from the date of discovery by an individual authorized to initiate an investigation.

1008.6.7 NOTICE TO COMPLAINANT OF INVESTIGATION STATUS

Best Practice

The member conducting the investigation should provide the complainant with periodic updates on the status of the investigation, as appropriate.

1008.7 ADMINISTRATIVE SEARCHES

Best Practice MODIFIED

Assigned lockers, storage spaces and other areas, including desks, offices and vehicles, may be searched as part of an administrative investigation upon a reasonable suspicion of misconduct.

Such areas may also be searched any time by a supervisor for non-investigative purposes, such as obtaining a needed report, radio or other document or equipment. Prior to conducting such a search, a supervisor will make an attempt to notify the affected employee.

1008.8 ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE

State MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 14.4 (B)

When a complaint of misconduct is of a serious nature, or when circumstances indicate that allowing the accused to continue to work would adversely affect the mission of the Department, the Chief of Police or the authorized designee may temporarily assign an accused employee to administrative leave. Any employee placed on administrative leave:

- (a) May be required to relinquish any department badge, identification, assigned weapons and any other department equipment.
- (b) Shall be required to continue to comply with all policies and lawful orders of a supervisor.
- (c) May be temporarily reassigned to a different shift, generally a normal business-hours shift, during the investigation. The employee may be required to remain available for contact at all times during such shift, and will report as ordered.
- (d) May be on leave without pay for no more than 30 days (Civil Service Law § 75).

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

1008.9 CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

Best Practice MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 25.1 (E)

Where a member is accused of potential criminal conduct, a separate supervisor or investigator shall be assigned to investigate the criminal allegations apart from any administrative investigation. Any separate administrative investigation may parallel a criminal investigation.

The Chief of Police shall be notified as soon as practicable when a member is accused of criminal conduct. The Chief of Police may request a criminal investigation by an outside law enforcement agency.

A member accused of criminal conduct shall be provided with all rights afforded to a civilian. The member should not be administratively ordered to provide any information in the criminal investigation.

The Auburn Police Department may release information concerning the arrest of any member, including an officer that has not led to a conviction. No disciplinary action should be taken until an independent administrative investigation is conducted.

1008.10 POST-ADMINISTRATIVE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

Best Practice

Upon completion of a formal investigation, an investigation report should be forwarded to the Chief of Police through the chain of command. Each level of command should review the report and include their comments in writing before forwarding the report. The Chief of Police may accept or modify any classification or recommendation for disciplinary action.

1008.10.1 DIVISION/SHIFT COMMANDER RESPONSIBILITIES

Best Practice MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 14.4 (C)

Upon receipt of any completed personnel investigation, the Division/Shift Commander of the involved member shall review the entire investigative file, the member's personnel file and any other relevant materials.

The Commander may make recommendations regarding the disposition of any allegations and the amount of discipline, if any, to be imposed.

Prior to forwarding recommendations to the Chief of Police, the Commander may return the entire investigation to the assigned investigator or supervisor for further investigation or action.

When forwarding any written recommendation to the Chief of Police, the Commander shall include all relevant materials supporting the recommendation. Actual copies of a member's existing personnel file need not be provided and may be incorporated by reference.

1008.10.2 OFFICE OF CHIEF OF POLICE RESPONSIBILITIES

State MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 14.4 (C)

Upon receipt of any written recommendation for disciplinary action, the Office of Chief of Police shall review the recommendation and all accompanying materials. The Office of Chief of Police

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

may modify any recommendation and/or may return the file to the Division/Shift Commander for further investigation or action.

Once the Office of Chief of Police is satisfied that no further investigation or action is required by staff, the Office of Chief of Police shall determine the amount of discipline, if any, that should be imposed. In the event disciplinary action is proposed, the Office of Chief of Police shall provide the employee with a written notice that includes the reasons for the proposed disciplinary action and a copy of the charges (Civil Service Law § 75, Collective Bargaining Agreement).

The employee shall be given an opportunity to respond in writing to the Office of Chief of Police within eight working days of receiving the notice.

Once the employee has completed his/her response, or if the employee has elected to waive any such response, the Office of Chief of Police shall consider all information received in regard to the recommended discipline. The Office of Chief of Police shall render a timely written decision in accordance with the CBA to the employee and specify the grounds and reasons for discipline and the effective date of the discipline. Once the Office of Chief of Police has issued a written decision, the discipline shall become effective.

1008.10.3 PRE-DISCIPLINE EMPLOYEE RESPONSE

Best Practice

The pre-discipline process is intended to provide the accused employee with an opportunity to present a written or oral response to the Chief of Police after having had an opportunity to review the supporting materials and prior to imposition of any recommended discipline. The employee shall consider the following:

- (a) The response is not intended to be an adversarial or formal hearing.
- (b) Although the employee may be represented by an uninvolved representative or legal counsel, the response is not designed to accommodate the presentation of testimony or witnesses.
- (c) The employee may suggest that further investigation could be conducted or the employee may offer any additional information or mitigating factors for the Chief of Police to consider.
- (d) In the event that the Chief of Police elects to conduct further investigation, the employee shall be provided with the results prior to the imposition of any discipline.
- (e) The employee may thereafter have the opportunity to further respond orally or in writing to the Chief of Police on the limited issues of information raised in any subsequent materials.

1008.10.4 HEARING BY HEARING OFFICER

State

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

The hearing shall be conducted by the designated hearing officer as provided in Civil Service Law § 75 or as otherwise provided in the applicable collective bargaining agreement or personnel rules. The hearing officer shall make a record of the proceedings.

The employee, upon request, may be represented by counsel, or by a representative of a recognized or certified employee organization. The employee shall be allowed to summon witnesses on his/her behalf. Judicial rules of evidence do not apply.

The hearing officer shall consider all information received in regard to the recommended discipline and shall forward his/her recommendations to the Chief of Police.

If the employee is found guilty, a copy of the charges, the employee's written response to the charges, a transcript of the hearing and the determination shall be retained by the Department. A copy shall be filed with the civil service commission having jurisdiction over the employee. A copy shall also be provided to the employee upon request without charge.

1008.10.5 NOTICE OF FINAL DISPOSITION TO THE COMPLAINANT

State MODIFIED

The Office of Chief of Police or the authorized designee should ensure that the complainant is notified of the disposition (i.e., sustained, not sustained, exonerated, unfounded) of the complaint.

1008.11 RESIGNATIONS/RETIREMENTS PRIOR TO DISCIPLINE

Best Practice

In the event that a member tenders a written resignation or notice of retirement prior to the imposition of discipline, it shall be noted in the file. The tender of a resignation or retirement by itself shall not serve as grounds for the termination of any pending investigation or discipline.

1008.12 POST-DISCIPLINE APPEAL RIGHTS

State MODIFIED

Permanent, non-probationary employees have the right to appeal a suspension without pay, punitive transfer, demotion, reduction in pay, or termination from employment. The permanent, non-probationary employees have the right to appeal using the procedures established by Civil Service Law § 76, any collective bargaining agreement and/or personnel rules.

1008.13 PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

Best Practice MODIFIED

Probationary employees may be disciplined and/or released from employment without adherence to any of the procedures set out in this policy, and without notice or cause at any time. These individuals are not entitled to any rights under this policy.

1008.14 RETENTION OF PERSONNEL INVESTIGATION FILES

State MODIFIED NYSLEAP - 8.4 - 14.4 (A)

Auburn Police Department

Policy Manual

Personnel Complaints / Disciplinary System

All personnel complaints shall be maintained in accordance with the established records retention schedule and as described in the Personnel Records Policy.
